Welcome To Compass Christian Counseling

Compass Christian Counseling at North Point Church exists to provide a place of outreach into the community at large while providing professional biblical counseling enabling individuals to face the challenges of everyday life.

As Christian Counselors dedicated to the well-being of our clients, our goal is that Christ would be formed in every life, bringing individuals from fear to faith: despair, to hope: loneliness to love through the presence of God and the guidance of the Holy Spirit,
“...until Christ is formed in you”
Galatians 4: 19b NIV

Beverly T Mayhak Puzia, Ph.D. is a Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor serving as Director for Compass Christian Counseling at North Point Church. Dr Bev has had over 20 years experience as a church staff member. She has served in private practice as a counselor from 1991 to 2006 with Zion Clinic Counseling Services and with North Point Church since 1993. Compass Christian Counseling was birthed when Zion Clinic closed its practice due to the relocation of Lisa H. Kim, M.D.

Dr Bev's training includes: Moody Bible Institute; B.Th. from International Seminary; M.S. and Ph.D. in Philosophy/Clinical Pastoral Counseling from Evangelical Theological Seminary. She is a Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor, Advanced Certification with the National Christian Counselors Association since 1993. In addition she holds Advanced Certification as Board Certified in Christian Temperament Therapies, Christian Marriage and Family Therapy; Christian Adolescent Therapy; Christian Death & Grief Therapy; Christian Addiction Therapy; Christian Group Therapy; Christian Substance Abuse Therapy; Christian Sexual Therapy; Crisis and Abuse Therapies; and Clinical Supervision. She is a member of the American Association of Christian Counselors and Christian Association of Psychological Studies.

Dr Bev married Dave in 1961. On March 2007 after 46 years of marriage, God called him home. They have two adult children, Pam and Scott (Kari) and grandmother to Jonathan, Justin and Jami.

In December 2009, Dr Bev married a long time friend of the family, Edwin H. Puzia, in a small family wedding in her home town in SC. Professionally she will be living in Milwaukee, WI, but also keeping her SC residence. Dr. Bev will be returning to the office every other week during 2010 by appointment only.

Kathi Moreland Hesselgrave is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who has been working with children, adolescents, families and adults since 1978. She received her Master of Social Work in 1985 from Simmons College School of Social Work.

Kathi has held a number of positions in social work, primarily devoted to the issues of childhood loss and trauma, chronic pain, adult mental health and marital issues. Kathi began private practice in 2003, while also working with Zion Clinic Counseling and with the counseling ministry at North Point Church, where she is a member. Currently, she is also working with sailors at Great Lakes Naval Base. She is a member of the National Association of Social Workers, the North American Association of Christians in Social Work, And the American Association of Christian Counselors. She is certified in Christian Mediation and in Crisis Incident Stress Management.

Although a native of Louisiana, Kathi lived in Memphis and Boston prior to moving to Illinois in 2000. She is a resident of Winthrop harbor, IL and the mother of one son, who is now serving in the Air Force. She has undergone the pain of divorce following a 27 year marriage and is hopeful about using this experience to assist others who are enduring any great trial in their lives.

Kathi married Dr. Ron Hesselgrave on January 1, 2010. Ron serves as missionary in the role of Educational Resources Coordinator for Touch Global Ministries, the holistic ministry arm of the Evangelical Free Church. Kathi and Ron will make their home in Winthrop Harbor and look forward to serving Christ in this Community.

Kay Swatkowski received her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Fort Wayne Bible College and an MA in Pastoral Counseling from the National Christian Counselors Association. She is a Licensed Clinical Pastoral Counselor.

Kay is a PHD Candidate with the N.C.C.A. She often employs life coaching skills with clients who desire to achieve specific life goals. Spiritual Direction is available for those who are seeking a closer relationship with God. A resident of Antioch, Illinois, Kay served for many years as Director of Women's Ministries for Midwest Baptist Conference. Kay is also a free-lance writer with numerous articles published in Baptist General Conference Publications.

Kay and her husband, Ray, are the parents of four grown children and enjoy spending time with their grandchildren. Ray and Kay also participate as teachers in seminars for Pastoral Couples, The Revive Us Summits.

Kay is now seeing clients at Compass Christian Counseling and looks forward to encouraging individuals both emotionally and spiritually.

Kelsie Newbrough received a Bachelor of Arts in Christian Counseling from Calvary Theological Seminary and a Master of Arts in Clinical Christian Counseling from Cornerstone University. She is an Ordained Minister of the Gospel with the National Conservative Christian Church and a Licensed Pastoral Counselor. She is certified in areas of counseling such as Temperament, Marriage and Family, Grief and Group Therapy, and Crisis Incident Stress Management. She continues to study as a Doctoral Candidate.

Kelsie is a Professional Clinical Member of the National Christian Counselor's Association and of the American Association of Christian Counselors. She is currently a volunteer member on the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army Waukegan Corps, and active in the Assistance in Healthcare at Cancer Treatment Centers of America, Zion. She also sits in Partnership for the Enhancement of the Community, Zion Benton.
